

Hopkins Business & Civic Association 2011 Community Awards

Each year HBCA recognizes the achievements of its membership by awarding the "HBCA Annual Community Awards". Award categories include Person of the Year, Business of the Year, and Civic/Non-Profit of the Year. Additional recipients may be recognized by the Award Task Force for special achievements. Please take a moment to nominate a deserving HBCA member for each category and tell us why. Award winners will be announced at the HBCA Annual Meeting to be held in February.

NOMINATIONS DUE FRIDAY, JANUARY 13th, 2012.

HBCA Person of the Year

Presented each year to the individual who demonstrates an unselfish commitment to the betterment of the HBCA and the community of Hopkins. Nominees (business persons, civic leaders, or community activists) will promote and encourage successful business practices, civic growth, and community well being in Hopkins.

2011 Nominee _____

Reasons:

HBCA Business of the Year

Nominees will be evaluated on the contribution the business (and its employees) has made to the betterment of the Hopkins community during 2011. Considerations for nominees will include outreach to the community through service projects, beautification improvements to properties and/or facilities, and business leadership and advocacy on issues impacting all Hopkins businesses.

2011 Nominee _____

Reasons:

HBCA Civic or Non-Profit Association of the Year

Nominees will be evaluated on the organization's contribution to Hopkins in 2011. Achievements could include the implementation of a new project, program or event benefitting Hopkins, or the growth of an existing project, program or event.
